EDITOR'S NOTE

The members of the Journal staff, and everyone connected with the College of Law, wish to thank the readers for their response to our request for subscriptions. We hope to justify your confidence in us by continuing the recent improvements which have been made in both the quality and the size of the Journal (then published as the Denver Law Center Journal).

Future issues will feature articles on such subjects as: Oil and Gas Financing under the Uniform Commercial Code, the Colorado Deadman's Statute, and Estate and Gift Taxation. Also scheduled for a later issue are two articles dealing with Trusts and their use in Estate Planning.

As in the past, the Denver Law Journal welcomes the submission of articles from attorneys and law professors. Although we are prevented by the limitations of space from using all the material sent to us, each article will be given our full consideration.
